Re: U.S. v. Keyon Dooling
21 Cr. 603 (VEC)

Honorable Valerie Caproni:

I am defense counsel for Keyon Dooling, who is released from custody with travel restrictions.

Your Honor previously signed an Order (Doc. 585) granting permission for Mr. Dooling to travel to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for a speaking engagement at a conference called: One Day at a Time Recovery, Inc. Mental Health Symposium. That speaking engagement, originally scheduled for October 13, 2022, was rescheduled for this week.

Mr. Dooling respectfully requests permission to travel from his residence in Florida to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on October 27, 2022 and return home on October 29, 2022.

Pretrial Officer Dominique Jackson informs me that Pretrial Services has no position on the defendant's travel as long as court approval is given and, if travel is permitted by the court, we send the order to pretrial services in the supervising district. Assistant United States Attorney Ryan Finkel informs me that he has no objection to this application.

Application GRANTED. Defendant must provide Pretrial Services with his itinerary and the location where he will be staying.
SO ORDERED.

HON. VALERIE CAPRONI
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Sincerely,

/s/
